

SCHOOL ADMISSION POLICY DIOCESE OF KILDARE & LEIGHLIN

NAME OF SCHOOL: Scoil an Linbh Íosa

ADDRESS: Ballycane, Naas, Co Kildare W91Y266

ROLL NUMBER: 19597T

PATRON Most Reverend Denis Nulty, Bishop of Kildare & Leighlin

Patron Approval

16/12/2022

1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the Patron on the 16 December 2022.

It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for Scoil an Linbh Iosa admission process are set out in the school's annual admission notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned. The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Scoil an Linbh Íosa, is a Catholic co-educational primary school with a Catholic ethos. The Bishop of Kildare & Leighlin is the Patron of this school.

'Catholic schools are communities which are open, welcoming and inclusive. Therefore, Catholic schools may include children who adhere to other religions or other stances for living. While mindful of their duty to educate in the distinctive beliefs, values, and practices of the Catholic community, teachers will bear witness to an attitude of respect for and appreciation of all'. 'The Catholic Preschool & Primary Religious Education Curriculum'

Catholic Ethos' in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith, and
- which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Scoil an Linbh Íosa shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

3. Admission Statement

Scoil an Linbh Íosa will not discriminate in its admission of a student to the school on any of the following:

- (a) the gender ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned,

- (h) the Traveller community ground of the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned, or
- (i) the ground that the student or the applicant in respect of the student concerned has special educational needs

As per section 61 (3) of the Education Act 1998, 'civil status ground', 'disability ground', 'discriminate', 'family status ground', 'gender ground', 'ground of race', 'religion ground',

'sexual orientation ground' and 'Traveller community ground' shall be construed in accordance with section 3 of the Equal Status Act 2000.

Scoil an Linbh Íosa will cooperate with the National Council for Special Education in the performance by the Council of its functions under the Education for Persons with Special Educational Needs Act 2004 relating to the provision of education to children with special educational needs, including in particular by the provision and operation of a special class or classes when requested to do so by the Council.

Scoil an Linbh Íosa will comply with any direction served on the patron or the board, as the case may be, under section 37A and any direction served on the board under section 67(4B) of the Education Act.”

All denominational schools

Scoil an Linbh Íosa is a school whose objective is to provide education in an environment that promotes certain religious values and does not discriminate where it refuses to admit as a student a person who is not a Roman Catholic and it is proved that the refusal is essential to maintain the ethos of the school.

Schools with special education class(es)

Scoil an Linbh Íosa, is a school that has established a class, with the approval of the Minister for Education and Skills, which provides an education exclusively for students with a category or categories of special educational needs specified by the Minister and may refuse to admit to the class a student who does not have the category of needs specified.

4. Categories of Special Educational Needs to be catered for in the School/Special Class

In the case of a mainstream school with SEN class attached

Scoil an Linbh Íosa, with the approval of the Minister for Education and Skills, established a class to provide an education exclusively for students with a definite diagnosis of Autistic Spectrum Disorder and have a diagnosis that meets D.S.M. IV & V or I.C.D.10 by a clinical psychiatrist/multi-disciplinary recommending that the student should be placed within an ASD class in a mainstream school is also required.

5. Admission of Students

This school shall admit each student seeking admission except where —

- a) the school is oversubscribed (Please see section 6 for further details)
- b) a parent of a student, when required by the principal in accordance with section 23(4) of the Education (Welfare) Act 2000, fails to confirm in writing that the code of behaviour of the school is acceptable to him or her and that he or she shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with such code by the student

- c) a child who is transferring from another school, who is currently suspended or undergoing a process under that school's code of behaviour. Reports detailing the child's behaviour record from the school, which the child is transferring is a requirement prior to the consideration of the application.
- d) for the special class where a child does not have a diagnosis of Autistic Spectrum Disorder and have a diagnosis that meets D.S.M. IV & V or I.C.D.10 by a clinical psychiatrist/multi-disciplinary

All denominational schools

Scoil an Linbh Íosa is a Catholic school and may refuse to admit as a student a person who is not a Roman Catholic where it is proved that the refusal is essential to maintain the ethos of the school.

School with special education class

The special class attached to Scoil an Linbh Íosa, provides an education exclusively for students with a definite diagnosis of Autistic Spectrum Disorder and the school may refuse admission to this class, where the student concerned does not have the specified category of special educational needs provided for in this class.

6. Oversubscription

In the event that the school is oversubscribed, the school will, when deciding on applications for admission, apply the following selection criteria in the order listed below to those applications that are received within the timeline for receipt of applications as set out in the school's annual admission notice:

Selection Criteria:

1. Siblings of pupils and step-siblings already enrolled in the school.
2. Children currently living in the Parish of Naas. Defined by the closest applicant's address this will be determined by proximity to the school i.e. the school's Eircode and the Eircode submitted on the applicant's application form.
3. Age-that the child has reached 4 years of age by the start of the school year.

In the event that there are two or more students tied for a place or places in any of the selection criteria categories above (the number of applicants exceeds the number of remaining places), the following arrangements will apply:

Priority is given to the oldest child (DOB provided on the application form). places will be offered beginning with the oldest eligible applicant in the oversubscribed category and proceeding in the descending order of age from the oldest to the youngest until all available places have been filled.

7. What will not be considered or taken into account

In accordance with section 62(7) (e) of the Education Act, the school will not consider or consider any of the following in deciding on applications for admission or when placing a student on a waiting list for admission to the school:

- (a) a student's prior attendance at a pre-school or pre-school service, including naionrai, except students currently enrolled in the ASD class.
- (b) the payment of fees or contributions (howsoever described) to the school;
- (c) a student's academic ability, skills or aptitude; other than in relation to: a special class insofar as it is necessary in order to ascertain whether or not the student has the category of special educational needs concerned.
- (d) the occupation, financial status, academic ability, skills, or aptitude of a student's parents;
- (e) a requirement that a student, or his or her parents, attend an interview, open day or other meetings as a condition of admission;
- (f) a student's connection to the school by virtue of a member of his or her family attending or having previously attended the school; other than, in the case of the school including selection criteria based on siblings/step siblings of a student attending Scoil an Linbh Íosa as outlined in Section 6:1 and S6:2 above.
- (g) the date and time on which an application for admission was received by the school, This is subject to the application being received at any time during the period specified for receiving applications set out in the annual admission notice of the school for the school year concerned.

8. Decisions on Application

All decisions on applications for admission to Scoil an Linbh Iosa will be based on the following:

- Our school's admission policy
- The school's annual admission notice
- The information provided by the applicant in the school's official application form received during the period specified in our annual admission notice for receiving applications

(Please see section 14 below in relation to applications received outside of the admissions period and section 15 below in relation to applications for places in years other than the intake group.)

Selection criteria that are not included in our school admission policy will not be used to make a decision on an application for a place in our school.

9. Notifying applicants of decisions

Applicants will be informed in writing as to the decision of the school, within the timeline outlined in the annual admissions notice.

If a student is not offered a place in our school, the reasons why they were not offered a place will be communicated in writing to the applicant, including, where applicable, details of the student's ranking against the selection criteria and details of the student's place on the waiting list for the school year concerned.

Applicants will be informed of the right to seek a review/right of appeal of the school's decision (see section 18 below for further details).

10. Acceptance of an offer of a place by an applicant

In accepting an offer of admission from Scoil an Linbh Íosa, you must indicate—

- i. Whether or not you have accepted an offer of admission for another school or schools. If you have accepted such an offer, you must also provide details of the offer or offers concerned and
- ii. Whether or not you have applied for and awaiting confirmation of an offer of admission from another school or school, and if so, you must provide details of the other school or schools concerned.

11 Circumstances in which offers may not be made or may be withdrawn

An offer of admission may not be made or may be withdrawn by Scoil an Linbh Íosa where

- i. It is established that information contained in the application is false or misleading.
- ii. An applicant fails to confirm acceptance of an offer of admission on or before the date set out in the annual admission notice of the school.
- iii. the parent of a student, when required by the principal in accordance with section 23(4) of the Education (Welfare) Act 2000, fails to confirm in writing that the code of behaviour of the school is acceptable to him or her and that he or she shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with such code by the student; or
- iv. an applicant has failed to comply with the requirements of 'acceptance of an offer as set out in section 10 above.

12. Sharing of Data with other Schools

Applicants should be aware that section 66(6) of the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 allows for the sharing of certain information between schools in order to facilitate the efficient admission of students. Section 66(6) allows a school to provide a patron or another board of management with a list of the students in relation to Whom—

- i. An application for admission to the school has been received,
- ii. an offer of admission to the school has been made, or
- iii. an offer of admission to the school has been accepted.

The list may include any or all of the following:

- i. the date on which an application for admission was received by the school;
- ii. the date on which an offer of admission was made by the school;

- iii. the date on which an offer of admission was accepted by an applicant;
- iv. a student's personal details including his or her name, address, date of birth and personal public service number (within the meaning of section 262 of the Social Welfare Consolidation Act 2005).

13. Waiting list in the event of oversubscription

In the event of there being more applications to the school year concerned than places available. A waiting list of students whose applications for admission to Scoil an Linbh Íosa were unsuccessful due to the school being oversubscribed will be compiled and will remain valid for the school year in which admission is being sought.

Placement on the waiting list of Scoil an Linbh Íosa is in the order of priority assigned to the students' applications after the school has applied the selection criteria in accordance with this admission policy

Applicants whose applications are received after the closing date, outlined in the Annual Admission Notice, will be placed at the end of the waiting list in order of the date of receipt of the application.

Offers of any subsequent places that become available for and during the school year in relation to which admission is being sought will be made to those students on the waiting list, in accordance with the order of priority in relation to which the students have been placed on the list.

14. Late Applications

All applications for admission received after the closing date as outlined in the annual admission notice will be considered and decided upon in accordance with our school's admissions policy, the Education Admissions to School Act 2018 and any regulations made under that Act.

Late applicants will be notified of the decision in respect of their application no later than three weeks after the date on which the school received the application. Late applicants will be offered a place if there is place available. In the event that there is no place available, the name of the applicant will be added to the waiting list as set out in Section 13.

15. Procedures for Admission of Students to other years and during the School Year

Criteria: That a place exists in an age-appropriate class. The maximum class size will not exceed 27:1 (Where a student leaves the school in a current class where the number in this class exceeds 27:1 this place will not be offered to a student on the waiting list).

The procedures of the school in relation to the admission of students who are not already admitted to the school, after the commencement of the school year in which admission is sought, are as follows:

1. The official application form must be fully completed. This is available for download from the school's website at www.holychildschoolnaas.com and/or in hard copy on request from the school and must be dated and signed by the parent/parents.

4. A separate form must be completed for each child, if applicable.
5. Where the number of applications outnumbers the available places, the school will apply the selection criteria in accordance with the admission policy.
6. A waiting list of students whose applications for admission to Scoil an Linbh Íosa were unsuccessful due to the school being oversubscribed will be compiled and will remain valid for the school year in which admission is being sought.

Placement on a waiting list of Scoil an Linbh Íosa is in order of priority assigned to the student's applications after the school has applied the criteria in accordance with this admission policy.

1. Submitting inaccurate information on an application form or in accompanying documentation will render the application void ab-initio and where a place has been offered will result in the offer of the place being withdrawn, the place being reallocated and the applicant being placed last on the waiting list. In the case of placement on a waiting list, the applicant will be placed last on the waiting list.
2. Parents of applicants who have been offered a place must inform the school in writing of the acceptance of the place, by completing and returning to the school an enrolment acceptance form within seven working days. Failure to do so will result in the place being forfeited and reallocated.
3. - if the application for admission is successful and the place has been accepted as outlined above, the pupils shall be enrolled as per his/her name on his/her official birth certificate
4. Applicants in respect of whom a fully completed application form and in respect of whom all relevant documentation has been submitted, who are not successful in securing a place will be placed on the waiting list. The waiting list remains valid for the school year in which admission is being sought.

The procedures of the school in relation to the admission of students who are not already admitted to the school, after the commencement of the school year in which admission is sought, are as follows:

1. The official application form must be fully completed. This is available for download from the school's website at www.holychildschoolnaas.com and/or in hard copy on request from the school and must be dated and signed by the parent/parents.
2. All requested documentation must be furnished i.e. a copy of the applicant's birth certificate and proof of address.
3. Applications that are incomplete, not signed, not dated, and/or do not include the required documentation will not be placed on the waiting list.
4. A separate form must be completed for each child, if applicable.
5. A waiting list of students whose applications for admission to Scoil an Linbh Íosa were unsuccessful due to the school being oversubscribed will be compiled with and will remain valid for the school year in which admission is being sought.
6. Submitting inaccurate information on an application form or in accompanying documentation will render the application void ab-initio and where a place has been offered will result in the offer of the place being withdrawn, the place being reallocated and the applicant being placed last on the waiting list. In the case of placement on a waiting list, the applicant will be placed last on the waiting list.
7. Parents of applicants who have been offered a place must inform the school in writing of the acceptance of the place, by completing and returning to the school an enrolment acceptance form within seven working days. Failure to do so will result in the place being forfeited and reallocated.
8. If the application for admission is successful and the place has been accepted as outlined above, the pupils shall be enrolled as per his/her name on his/her official birth certificate

Applicants in respect of whom a fully completed application form and in respect of whom all relevant documentation has been submitted, who are not successful in securing a place will be placed on the waiting list. This waiting list will remain valid for the duration of the school year in which admission is being sought.

16. Declaration in Relation to the Non-Charging of fees

The board of Scoil an Linbh Íosa or any persons acting on its behalf will not charge fees for or seek payment or contributions (howsoever described) as a condition of-

- (a) an application for admission of a student to the school, or
- (b) the admission or continued enrolment of a student in the school.

17. Arrangements regarding students not attending religious instruction

The following are the school's arrangements for students, where the parents, who has requested that the student attend the school without attending religious instruction in the school.

A written request should be made to the principal of the school. A meeting will then be arranged with the parent(s) to discuss how the request may be accommodated by the school.
